Things to do

1 Scarborough Castle

A dramatic 12th Century medieval fortress on a rocky headland over the North Sea, boasting 3,000 years of history.

2 Sea Life Scarborough

A popular marine attraction with exhibits, showcasing over 2,500 creatures across 12 themed zones. Including a seal hospital, a dedicated turtle rescue experience and a penguin island.

3 RSPB Bempton Cliffs

A spectacular nature reserve home to England's largest mainland seabird colony in chalk cliffs that host around half a million seabirds including puffins and guillemots.

4 Filey Animal Park

A charming and relaxing park home to a mix of domestic and exotic animals, vibrant gardens and nature trails.

5 Alpamare UK

A premier alpine-themed water park overlooking the North Sea. With water rides and wave pools for thrill-seekers and a tranquil luxury spa for those looking to unwind.

6 Flamingo Land

Yorkshire's ultimate theme park, water park and zoo. With over 100 rides from children's attractions to intense rollercoasters, a separate water park complex and zoo home to animals including flamingos.

7 Scarborough

A vibrant seaside town offering a mix of Victorian charm, sandy beaches, fishing heritage and modern attractions including Peasholm Park.

8 Filey

A low-key and traditional seaside resort famous for its tranquil atmosphere and Victorian-Edwardian charm. It features a glorious 5 mile stretch of golden sandy beach.

Walk

Spanning over 109 miles of coastline and moorland, the Cleveland Way trail is scattered with ancient castles, fishing villages and tiny coves with spectacular views.

Flamborough Head is a beautiful and relaxing circular walk which takes in the Coastal Path between the South and North Landings. Also great for birdwatching.

Cycle

A fantastic location for all cyclists. There are 3 dedicated cycling routes and miles of scenic forest tracks, disused railway lines and pretty country roads.

Cinder Track is a 21 mile route beginning in Scarborough and taking in Hayburn Wyke, Robin Hood's Bay and Larpool Viaduct before ending in Whitby. This is part of National Cycle Network route 1.
