Things to do

1 Big Pit National Coal Museum

A real coal mine and one of Britain's leading mining museums. The main attraction is the Underground Tour which sees visitors travel 300 feet down a mine shaft!

2 Penderyn Distillery

The home to Welsh Whiskey and producers of award-winning single malt whiskies and spirits in the foothills of South Wales.

3 Cyfarthfa Castle Museum and Art Gallery

This regency mansion is the best-preserved Ironmaster's house in Wales, featuring social history, fine art and industrial exhibits.

4 Brecon Mountain Railway

Enjoy the beauty of the Brecon Beacons National Park by vintage steam train.

5 Cantref Adventure Farm

An award-winning farm park and riding centre offering hands-on animal encounters, thrilling rides, all-weather shows, activities and adventure play for all ages.

6 Llangorse Multi Activity Centre

An award-winning adventure hub, with indoor and outdoor activities – real rock and artificial climbing walls, bouldering and indoor caving.

7 National Showcaves of Wales

Wales' top visitor attraction, Britain's Finest Natural Wonder and the most breathtaking showcaves in Northern Europe.

8 Brecon

A picturesque market town renowned for Georgian architecture, cathedral and military heritage. Serving as a popular hub for outdoor activities exploring the surrounding mountains.

9 Merthyr Tydfil

Rich in culture, history and breathtaking surroundings, this town was once known as the Iron Capital of the World. It has now transformed into a hub for adventure tourism.

Walk

The Brecon Beacons National Park provides some of the finest walking areas in the country, from gentle strolls to tough mountain scrambles.

A hike to the top of Pen-y-Fan will give you an enormous sense of achievement as well as spectacular views.

To the south of the Brecon Beacons is Henrhyd Falls and Nant Llech Valley, one of Wales' tallest waterfalls.

Cycle

There are traffic free canal paths, lakes and reservoirs nearby, including the Llangorse Lake and the Welsh Crannog Centre or Talybont Reservoir with beautiful views across the water.

For a longer ride, head for the mountain bike and forest trails in Glasfynydd and Garwnant, Usk Reservoir or Clydach Gorge.
