Things to do

1 Dunrobin Castle

An fairytale-style castle dating back in part to the 13th Century, with French a château-style architecture, a dramatic clifftop setting and formal gardens.

2 Timespan Visitor Centre

A unique, fully accessible cultural hub telling the story of the Highlands, combining a museum, art gallery, geology garden and café on the North Coast 500 route.

3 Brora Heritage Centre

Open May-September, this community museum showcases the industrial history of the village – coal, salt, textiles, fishing and wool.

4 Wick Heritage Museum

Open Easter to October, a rambling treasure trove dedicated to preserving the town of Wick's rich fishing history and local culture.

5 Fossil hunting

Brora and the surrounding coastline are great for fossil hunting – Jurassic-era ammonites, shells and plant fossils are all possible finds!

6 Golspie

An attractive seaside village boasting a gorgeous sandy beach, beautiful walking trails and historic buildings, including St Andrews Church and Dunrobin Castle.

7 Wick

With an excellent museum and pretty harbour, this heritage town is steeped in maritime history. It also holds the record for the World's Shortest Street – Ebenezer Place!

8 Helmsdale

An attractive, traditional fishing village, originally a Viking settlement. Renowned for salmon fishing, fly-fishing and gold-panning. Also great Fish and Chips!

9 Brora Loch

A freshwater loch, known for tranquil beauty, shallow waters and salmon fishing. Framed by hills, heather and woodland, its a hidden undeveloped escape great for wildlife spotting.

10 Cairn Laith

A unique and well-preserved prominent Iron Age drystone tower.

Walk

Walk from the site to Brora Beach. Also from Brora Head for Loch Brora and return to the village along the River Brora.

In Golspie, the Big Burn Waterfall Walk takes you through woodland and across bridges. It sits beneath Ben Braggi – a steep but fantastic hill walk.

Cycle

Highland Wildcat specialises in mountain bike trails. They have three prepared routes that are suitable for different abilities.
