Discover North Devon

Things to do

1 Tiverton Castle

The remains of a medieval Castle occupying a defensive position on the River Exe, dismantled after the English Civil War and converted into a country house.

2 Museum of Somerset

Inside Taunton Castle, the museum chronicles the county's history from prehistoric times to the present day.

3 RHS Garden Rosemoor

Nestled in the Torridge Valley, this garden features themed garden-rooms, the largest rose collection in the South West and vibrant, seasonal displays.

4 Devon Railway Centre

An interactive, family-friendly attraction offering unlimited rides on narrow-gauge railways with a restored Victorian station and extensive model railways.

5 National Archery – Taunton

Try your hand at archery – the perfect activity for all ages and athletic abilities and great fun!

6 Diggerland

A unique adventure theme park where children and adults can drive, ride and operate real construction machinery, including JCBs, excavators and dumpers.

7 Tiverton Canal

This 11 mile tranquil waterway is run as a nature reserve with scenic tow-paths, diverse wildlife and the last horse-drawn barge in the UK.

8 Dulverton

A beautiful, historic market town set on the River Barle, acting as the southern gateway to exploring the Exmoor National Park.

9 Barnstaple

Known as the social heart of North Devon, this cultural, educational and retail hub is the gateway to the north coastline beaches and Tarka Trail.

Walk

Beautiful walks of varying lengths can be followed around the Exmoor National Park with fishing in the lakes – permits can be purchased locally, including on site at reception.

Cycle

The nearest National Cycle Network route to site is 3: Taunton to Hatherleigh.

There are routes around Exmoor for all abilities – whether you'd like to enjoy the peaceful network of country lanes or climb the challenging 1,705 feet to the highest point at Dunkery.
