Things to do

1 Hannafore Point

A scenic coastal area renowned for its panoramic views of Looe Bay and St. George's Island. Featuring a long, rocky beach, a sea wall and the Hannafore Point Hotel and Spa.

2 The Eden Project

Featuring massive Biomes that house the world's largest indoor rainforest it operates as a 'living theatre' of plants, promoting sustainability, environmental education and regeneration.

3 Carnglaze Caverns

Three man-made slate caverns, including a famous subterranean lake with crystal-clear blue-green water, set within acres of ancient oak woodland and terraced gardens.

4 Cotehele Estate

An atmospheric Tudor manor estate on the banks of the River Tamar. Featuring a house, terraced gardens, a working Victorian watermill and a quay, surrounded by 1,300 acres of woodland and countryside.

5 Looe Boat Trips

See the protected Looe Island from the water with scenic river tours, exhilarating speedboat rides, glass-bottom nature tours and deep sea fishing excursions.

6 The Looe Valley Railway

A community railway line running between Liskeard and Looe, winding through wooded valleys and alongside the scenic East Looe River estuary. Perfectly combined with birdwatching.

7 Polperro

An unspoiled pilchard fishing village, tucked into a steep-sided coombe, it is renowned for its winding, traffic-free streets, ancient stone fishermen's cottages and a sheltered, historic harbour.

8 Bodmin

One of Cornwall's oldest towns, steeped in history, including the infamous Bodmin Jail, the 15th Century Church and Bodmin Moor.

Walk

The Cornwall Coast Path runs around the peninsula going west and across the border into Devon travelling east.

Cycle

The nearest National Cycle Network route is 2: Lanhydrock to Eden.
