Things to do

1 The Morgan Motor Company

A draw for automotive enthusiasts, with factory tours showing artisans meticulously hand-building vehicles to order using traditional materials.

2 Croome National Trust

An 18th Century estate blending grand Palladian design with vast parkland, serene lakeside walks, a secret wartime airbase and art exhibitions.

3 Great Malvern Priory

A stunning, Grade I listed Anglican church founded in 1085 and celebrated for the largest display of 15th Century stained glass.

4 Three Counties Showground

A major event venue serving as a premier destination for agricultural, motoring, horticultural and family events, including the Caravan Show.

5 Knapp and Papermill Nature Reserve

A beautiful nature reserve and a circular nature trail through an orchard, wildflower meadows and woodlands alongside the Leigh Brook.

6 Eastnor Castle

A 19th Century castle in a deer park, arboretum and lake. With lavish interiors, medieval armour and family activities including an assault course and knights maze.

7 National Archery – Malvern

Try your hand at archery – the perfect activity for all ages and athletic abilities and great fun!

8 Worcester

A vibrant cathedral city on the River Severn. Blending medieval heritage with contemporary culture, against a backdrop of the Malvern Hills.

9 Upton-upon-Severn

A picturesque town on the River Severn, famous for a vibrant calendar of music festivals, shops, marina and iconic Pepperpot church tower.

10 Tewkesbury

An ancient market town at the meeting point of the Rivers Severn and Avon. Famous for its towering 12th Century Norman Abbey and ties to the Wars of the Roses.
