Visitor's top tips

|| Llangrannog is ideal for swimming and water sports.

This is an excellent area for walking along the Heritage Coastal Paths.

Visit Bwlch Nant Y Arian Visitor Centre, a great place for walking and cycling and daily Red Kite feeding.

Take a walk along the disused railway track near to Llanerchaeron, following the Aeron River to Aberaeron.

Treat yourself to delicious fish and chips from The Lime Crab, New Quay or The New Celtic Restaurant, Aberaeron.

Visit The Hive in Aberaeron for tasty honey ice cream.

If pub grub is your thing, then go to the Llanina Pub in Llanarth. We had two excellent evening meals, and also had Sunday lunch there. Absolutely superb.

Drive inland to the beautiful Cambrian Mountains. **||
